INTERNATIONAL OPERATING CONFERENCE & TRADE SHOW

HOUSTON ★ TEXAS

Hilton Americas-Houston
George R. Brown Convention Center

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

ILTA

A wide-angle photograph of a busy trade show floor, overlaid with a yellow tint. The floor is filled with people, booths, and various displays. In the background, there are signs for booth numbers 200, 300, 400, and 500. The overall atmosphere is one of a large-scale professional event.

CONFERENCE

The ILTA Annual International Operating Conference has brought together the industry's best speakers to address the latest developments in terminal operations, business issues, renewable fuels and environmental compliance solutions.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- Chief executives and managing directors of petroleum and chemical companies
- Owners and operators of bulk liquid storage facilities
- Senior executives of the customers and suppliers of bulk liquid terminals
- Terminal managers
- Business development managers
- Environmental managers and engineers
- Safety professionals
- Purchasing managers
- Security specialists
- Regulatory affairs directors
- Maintenance supervisors

NEW IN 2008!

Terminal Industry Job Fair

In conjunction with the trade show, ILTA will be hosting a Terminal Industry Job Fair on June 11.

For job seekers, it will provide an opportunity to meet some of the industry's employers and speaking with company recruiters in a relaxed, informal setting.

For potential employers, it offers access to qualified people with experience in our industry.

- Terminal Companies interested in participating should contact Melinda Whitney at 202-842-9200.

MEMBER DISCOUNTS

ILTA terminal and supplier members receive a substantial discount on registration fees for the conference. To receive the member rate, please include the member company name on all ILTA registration materials.

CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS

Each conference participant will receive a copy of the ILTA Conference Proceedings at the registration desk.

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDITS

Many national, state, and local licensing boards and professional organizations will grant Continuing Education Units for attendance at this conference when you submit the conference program and Certificate of Attendance. Contact your own board or organization to find out what is required. Please contact the ILTA office for more information or to request a Certificate of Attendance.

FEATURED SPEAKER

• Monday, June 9 • 8:30 a.m. - 9:45 a.m.

➔ P.J. O'ROURKE
Political Satirist and Best-selling Author

Pirates in Neckties: Government vs. the Free Market, Which is Worse?

Whether dealing with the inner workings of Washington bureaucracy or the shifting political and economic sands of the new world order, P.J. O'Rourke proves himself to be a savvy guide to national and world affairs. With America in the midst of an all-important presidential campaign, O'Rourke will give the political lay-of-the land as it appears in June. O'Rourke adds a unique spin that has earned him a reputation as a modern-day Will Rogers.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

• Tuesday, June 10 • 11:30 a.m. - 1:15 p.m.

➔ JAMIE CLARKE
Canadian Adventurer

Above All Else

No stranger to adventure, Jamie Clarke has climbed the most challenging peaks in the world, traveled to over 40 countries, and completed a 620-mile crossing of Arabia's Empty Quarter, the most desolate and dangerous desert in the world. He will present a powerful message of achieving the extraordinary, inspiring attendees to never stop dreaming and to reach for the success that is within their grasp. During his presentation, he will relate the importance of overcoming the fear of rejection as a major factor in the process of reaching goals. Clarke will remind ILTA attendees that what one person cannot do alone, a successful team can achieve together.

Post-Conference Workshops

Air Emissions 2008 Update

- June 11, 2008
Wednesday • 8:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.

CONDUCTED BY: TGB

This three-hour workshop is designed to provide an update for previous attendees of ILTA's Advanced Tanks-Air Emissions training seminar held during the June 2007 conference and the October 2007 workshop in Long Beach, CA. Attendees will receive new materials to update their Advanced Tanks workshop binder.

REGISTRATION FEE:

By May 9th$175
After May 9th$200
On-site$225

Advanced Tanks-Air Emissions

- June 11-12, 2008
Wednesday • 2:30 p.m. - 5:30 p.m.
& Thursday • 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

CONDUCTED BY: TGB

This course provides a detailed look into air emissions issues relating to the design, construction and inspection of aboveground storage tanks. It will address regulatory compliance, emissions calculations, and recordkeeping and reporting requirements. This course is structured for those who have a basic knowledge of air emissions issues and are interested in more advanced technical information.

REGISTRATION FEE:

By May 9th$425
After May 9th$450
On-site$475

Introduction to Tanks

- June 11-12, 2008
Wednesday • 2:30 p.m. - 5:30 p.m.
& Thursday • 8:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

CONDUCTED BY:

This program covers the basic guidelines for design, construction, inspection, maintenance and repair of aboveground storage tanks. It also provides an overview of pertinent tank regulations. Various types of tanks and roofs will be described, as well as tank seals and appurtenances. Gauging and overflow protection will also be addressed. Taught by industry experts, this course is ideally suited for new terminal employees. Experienced personnel who want a review of aboveground storage tank fundamentals will also benefit from attending.

REGISTRATION FEE:

By May 9th$375
After May 9th$400
On-site$425

Effective Media Communications

- June 12, 2008
Thursday • 8:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

CONDUCTED BY:

An organization's reputation and credibility sometimes depend on its ability to work effectively with the news media. In this skills-development workshop, attendees will learn the importance of having a communications plan for dealing with the media and the public, and how to make it work. Attendees will practice in a safe environment—making and correcting their mistakes among peers, instead of in front of thousands of viewers on the evening news.

REGISTRATION FEE:

By May 9th$350
After May 9th$375
On-site$400

About ILTA

The Independent Liquid Terminals Association represents 75 companies and partnerships that operate bulk liquid storage terminals in the United States and 41 countries. These facilities are located in ports and along rivers, canals and pipelines. Products handled by our members include crude oil, petroleum products and a wide variety of chemicals, as well as ethanol, biodiesel, vegetable oils, molasses and fertilizers. ★ One of ILTA's goals is to develop and maintain an ongoing education and training program for our members that includes in-depth seminars, on-line resources, committee-based research and evaluation, and focused working groups. ILTA is dedicated to helping our members continually improve the safety of their operations and the level of environmental responsibility demonstrated at their facilities. We recognize the value of networking and knowledge sharing among peers as an essential component of the professional development and job satisfaction of terminal member employees. ★

REGISTRATION

Program Name Badges

An ILTA-issued badge is necessary for admission to all ILTA events. Conference, reception and keynote luncheon registration is located on the second floor of the Hilton. Exhibitor and trade show registration is located in Exhibit Hall E of the George R. Brown Convention Center.

Recommended Attire

Business casual dress is appropriate for all conference and trade show activities and functions. Please bring a sweater or light jacket with you to the meeting rooms as they sometimes become a little cold.

Parking

Self-parking in the hotel garage is available as well as valet parking. Additional parking on surface lots is available near the hotel and convention center.

Transportation

The Hilton Americas-Houston is approximately 15 minutes from Hobby Airport and 30 minutes from Bush Intercontinental Airport. The taxi fare is approximately $30 from Hobby and $50 from Intercontinental.

Shuttle service is available from both airports to the hotel. Shuttles run approximately every half hour. The one-way fare is $18 per person from Hobby and $23 per person from Intercontinental. In addition, METRO (the Houston Metropolitan Transit Authority) offers bus service from both airports to the downtown area.

Questions?

Contact ILTA at 202-842-9200.

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The 2008 ILTA Conference and Trade Show sponsorship package and golf sponsorship package offer many ways for your company to establish a powerful presence at the events and make critical connections with key decision makers.

- Contact Renita Gross at 202-842-9200 for more details on available sponsorship packages.

The full conference registration fee includes all scheduled sessions, Monday lunch and reception, and the Tuesday keynote luncheon. Each attendee will receive a conference bag with one copy of the Conference Proceedings. The post-conference workshops are available for an additional fee. Additional proceedings books and workshop materials are available for purchase. There is no charge to attend the trade show.
