

4th May 2010

To all our valued customers,

As part of Liquip International's ongoing commitment to the North American market I am pleased to announce a new addition to our sales team, Dave Gillaspy. Dave joined the Liquip team in January of this year and has taken on the role of Business Development Manager for the Americas.

Dave brings with him over 14 years experience in industrial sales and has spent the last 3 plus years as a sales manager with the Liquid Controls Group. His experience and relationships within the Oil & Gas industry will serve him well in terms of hitting the ground running.

Based in the US, Dave will now provide full time local presence to help further the success Liquip has achieved over the years.

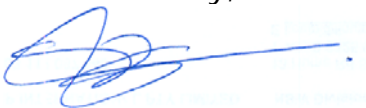

Dave and I will work in tandem to continue providing the required support to our distributors and end users in order to expand Liquip's success throughout the North American marketplace.

Please join me in welcoming Dave to Liquip International.

Dave's contact information is as follows:
