Jamie Clarke
Canadian Adventurer and Extraordinary Speaker
Experience an Everest adventure as if you were there!

On May 23, 1997, Jamie Clarke became the ninth Canadian to climb to the summit of Mount Everest. That was just the beginning of his exploration. In 1999, Clarke completed a 620-mile camel crossing of Arabia's Empty Quarter, the most desolate and dangerous desert in the world. Clarke relates the importance of overcoming the fear of rejection as a major factor in the process of reaching your goals. He suggests that we must face and conquer the internal battle of self-awareness so that we may then become a supportive member of any team that faces challenges together.
