International Operating Conference & Trade Show

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

May 24-26, 2010

Hilton Americas-Houston • George R. Brown Convention Center

Houston, Texas

Celebrating 30 Years of Bringing the Terminal Industry Together

Conference

In these times of changing regulations, complex operational issues and increasing costs, it is more important than ever to find and implement ideas that deliver results for your company. Our conference provides informative presentations given by industry experts who have faced similar challenges and have employed strategies to help organizations make better decisions.

FEATURED SPEAKER

David White, Publisher, Industrial Fire World magazine

Monday, May 24, 2010 • 8:30 a.m. – 9:40 a.m.

An In-Depth Examination of Recent Tank Fires in Puerto Rico and India

The opening session of the ILTA conference features fire protection expert David White, publisher of Industrial Fire World. He will discuss major storage tank explosions and fires that have occurred in the past several years. He will examine the causes that led to each accident and discuss the emergency response actions taken at each site. He will also discuss how current regulatory requirements and best practices in the U.S. might assist terminals in avoiding similar incidents.

Schedule of Events

May 23	Golf Tournament
May 24-25	Conference
May 25-26	Trade Show
May 26-27	Workshops

KEYNOTE LUNCHEON

Commander Kirk Lippold, United States Navy (Ret.), Commanding Officer, USS Cole

Tuesday, May 25, 2010 • 11:30 a.m. – 1:15 p.m.

Leadership and Accountability When It Matters

Commander Kirk Lippold, USN (Ret.) was the Commanding Officer of the USS Cole when it came under a suicide terrorist attack by al Qaeda in the port of Aden, Yemen. Through preparation and leadership, Commander Lippold inspired his crew to act decisively in the ultimate crisis situation when terrorists attacked. Using the theme, "Leadership and Accountability When It Matters," he will identify the key principles of integrity-based leadership and speak about what leadership skills are the most crucial in a time of crisis. He will also discuss how managers can establish ways to empower their team when facing unexpected challenges.

Who Should Attend

Chief executives and managing directors of petroleum and chemical companies

Owners and operators of bulk liquid storage facilities

Senior executives of the customers and suppliers of bulk liquid terminals

Terminal managers

Business development/planning managers

Environmental managers and engineers

Safety professionals

Security specialists

Regulatory affairs directors

Maintenance supervisors

Industry consultants

MEMBER DISCOUNTS

ILTA terminal and supplier members receive a substantial discount on registration fees for the conference. To receive the member rate, please include the member company name on all ILTA registration materials.

Facility Security Officer Training

May 26, 2010

Wednesday, May 26 • 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Instructors: Niell Irvin and Ric Walters, O'Brien's Response Management

This workshop is a comprehensive security training course that enables terminal owners and operators to fully comply with the Coast Guard Maritime Security training requirements in 33 CFR 105. The course will provide in-depth instruction on current regulations, security threats, access controls and countermeasures relevant to maritime facilities. It is an ideal course for newly hired Facility Security Officers (FSOs) and is an excellent review of security issues for all facility security personnel. Previously trained FSOs will benefit from attending to reinforce the information provided during prior training as well as learn about current security topics. Breakfast and lunch will be provided.

REGISTRATION FEE:

By April 23rd.....$475
After April 23rd.....$500

ABOUT ILTA

The International Liquid Terminals Association is the only trade association that focuses exclusively on the bulk liquid terminal industry. It represents companies and partnerships that operate terminals in 47 countries. Products handled by our members include crude oil, petroleum products and a wide variety of chemicals, as well as ethanol, biodiesel, vegetable oils, molasses and fertilizers. Revenue received from our conference and trade show goes directly into services for our members, such as analysis of regulatory developments, ongoing training programs, the monthly newsletter, and representation of the bulk liquid terminal industry in Washington.

www.ilta.org

TERMINAL MEMBERS

ILTA terminal member facilities include deepwater, barge and pipeline terminals whose bulk liquid commodities are a key part of the national and international economies. These terminals interconnect with and provide services to the various modes of bulk liquid transportation, including oceangoing tankers, barges, tank trucks, rail cars and pipelines.

SUPPLIER MEMBERS

ILTA supplier members provide a wide variety of products and services to the terminal industry. These products and services are essential to the success and efficient operation of bulk liquid terminals.
