ILTA Membership is Good for Business

ILTA is the only North American-based trade association with an exclusive focus on the liquid terminal industry. We provide our supplier members opportunities to network with terminal decisionmakers and help support the overall health of the industry.

With headquarters in metropolitan Washington, D.C., ILTA closely monitors developments on Capitol Hill and in federal agencies such as the U.S. Coast Guard, Department of Homeland Security, the Department of Energy and the Environmental Protection Agency. ILTA works collaboratively with stakeholders in related industries such as oil extraction and refining, chemical manufacturing, ports and waterways, railways and pipelines to achieve common objectives in public policy discussions. Our mission is to provide the services and resources that enable the liquid terminal industry to thrive.

ILTA offers unparalleled networking opportunities to our supplier members. Member companies receive substantial discounts to exhibit at the world’s premier industry trade show which includes multiple networking events with terminal decisionmakers. Through our newsletters, social media channels and educational conferences, ILTA also serves as a reliable resource to our members and the entire industry.

ABOUT ILTA

Founded in 1974, the International Liquid Terminals Association represents more than 85 companies operating liquid terminals in all 50 states and in over 40 countries. Our members’ facilities provide critical links between all modes of transportation for liquid commodities, such as crude oil, petroleum products, chemicals, renewable fuels, fertilizer, vegetable oils and other food-grade materials that are central to the U.S. economy. Terminals provide essential logistics services that spur trade both within the United States and connect the U.S. economy with overseas markets. ILTA’s membership also includes about 400 companies that supply equipment and services to the terminal industry.

OPERATING CONFERENCE AND TRADE SHOW

ILTA's annual conference and trade show in Houston, Texas, is the premier event for the terminal industry. More than 4,500 industry professionals from around the globe attend each year and nearly 350 companies exhibit. ILTA members receive reduced registration rates and pay substantially lower exhibitor fees. The conference and trade show, as well as related activities like golf and receptions, offer unparalleled networking opportunities, allowing supplier members to interact with key terminal decisionmakers. The conference offers unmatched professional development opportunities, with a program and post-conference training tailored to the needs and interests of terminal industry professionals. There are also prominent advertising and sponsorship opportunities that allow ILTA supplier members to stand out in the crowd and make an impact on both existing customers and prospects.

GOVERNMENT RELATIONS

ILTA represents the industry before Congress and federal agencies on environmental matters, security issues, business practices, safety concerns and other issues. ILTA also arranges a yearly Congressional 'fly-in' to allow terminal members to promote the benefits of the industry and advocate for the industry's legislative priorities to key House and Senate members and committees. ILTA understands that the continued strength of the terminal industry is of paramount interest to our supplier members.

INFORMATION SERVICES

ILTA's comprehensive website is full of information and resources for our members. The website's event section will keep you informed on the latest information about the annual conference and trade show, including new exhibitor developments and sponsorship, advertising and networking opportunities. ILTA also produces a monthly newsletter, ILTA News, filled with legislative, regulatory and industry developments, and it supplements that newsletter with the weekly ILTA News Plus, updating members on industry news with articles from thousands of media sources. Plus, ILTA prints an annual membership directory and offers a searchable online version for members.
